THE POLO MATCH
By Paul Terry.

Out to Meadowbrook rides little Rita to see her hero, Milton Mouse, play a stiff game of polo. While she is watching him race up and down the field, Waffles, the villian cat, flirts with her. Angered at being repulsed, he grabs her and makes off.

Milton, hearing her cries of help, leaves the polo match to rescue her. With the help of his oft trusted wooden horse and his mallet he makes short work of Waffles and soon has Rita in his arms.
